The Regular Meeting of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association of Randolph-Macon Academy was held on Saturday, the Twenty-First of August Two-Thousand-Twenty-One, via Videoconference, due to pandemic conditions caused by COVID-19. The President being in the Chair, and the Secretary being present, the meeting was called to order at thirty-one minutes past noon.

The President's report reflected on the past three years and looked forward to the change over to the incoming president at Homecoming.

The Minutes of the three previous regular meetings were presented and approved as corrected.

The Academy's Alumni Engagement Coordinator presented the Academy Updates noting that there were over one hundred cadets on Campus for Summer School, Cadre, Football camp and other activities; enrollment is up to two hundred seventy-four, the largest year-over-year increase since 2004; Admissions now holds weekly webinars instead of open houses due to COVID restrictions; noted two new members of Advancement Department that would be at Homecoming.

Board voted to approve expenditure to purchase Bricks in line with request from Kyle McDaniel et al.

Homecoming Award nominees were approved as presented, noting the omission of the Young Alumnus Award from this year's list:

Class Agent of the Year: Jim Fort '70

Byron C. Gale '50 Dedicated Service Award: Philip A. Covell '59

Staff Recognition: G. Edwin Richards

Distinguished Alumnus Award: RAdm. John D. Stufflebeem, USN, Retired '70

The Board voted to forward the recommendations for the Election of the Officers of the Association from the Nominating Committee as presented:

President: Bryan Moore '84

Vice President & Immediate Past President: Robert "Bo" Snitchler '06

Co-Secretary/Treasurer: David Parrish '02 & Andrew Pfister '08

Sergeant-At-Arms: Jay Moore '74

The Board also voted to forward the recommendation of the Election and Re-Election of the other Members of the Board of Directors for a three-year term as presented:

Conroy Wilson '68

Fred Greenwood '73

Scarlett (Praml) Kibler '89

The Meeting was adjourned at six minutes past two o'clock in the afternoon.
